The Police Bill.

The new police bill, or, in other words, an act to work a partial disfranchisement of the people of this city, has now passed both Houses, and is-so far as legislative action is concerned-a law. It was passed by a party vote: the Democratic party, with one or two exceptions, voting forthe Opposition voting against it. Its object is to take the police-appointing power out of the hands of the city executive, and place it in the hands of several persons chosen by the legislature-to-wit: Mr. N. W. THOMAS, now Mayor; Mr. A. J. PRUDEN, now Police Judge; and Mr. S. S. McGirbons, now City Auditor. The people should always view with jealousy every attempt to remove power farther from their hands. Such attempts are never made but under the influence of unworthy motives. Of this act-taking all the circumstances of the case as testimony-the leaders of the Democratic party in the city are the authors; and for its origin there can be but one objectto retain power that otherwise they suspected to be ready to depart from their hands. As an unfortunate precedent, the act is a subject of regret; as the proabettors are entitled to some expression of public indignation.

There is a question in respect to this law, which is preliminary to all attempts to estimate its practical effects-is it constitutional? If it is not, its principal effeet will be to perplex and complicate the affairs of the city; perhaps to bring about a conflict between two establishments, as was the case in New York-from which the movement is evidently imitated-and add, by litigation and otherwise, greatly to the cost of the local government. The Constitution of the State declares no appointing power shall be exercised by the General Assembly, except as prescribed in this Constitution, and in the election of United States Senators. The appointinstrument, given to the General Assembly; and consequently such an act is not only unauthorized, but is directly in the face of the positive prohibition of the paramount law of the State. An attempt has been made to get around the difficulty by designating the Commissioners by the title of certain offices which they hold, and not by their names. Instead of Grave no terror. Messrs. Thomas, PRUDEN and McGibbons, we have Messrs Mayor, Police Judge and City Auditor-as if, by holding offices under the Constitution, these functionaries became fit to hold other offices, in spite of the Constitution. This will bardly do. The thing is but a dodge, and differs from other dodges only in being unusually transparent. It was evidently entered into to get rid of a decision of the Supreme Court, in the case of a law passed last winter, giving to Messrs, Kennon, Med-BERRY and CALDWELL, as members of the Board of State-house Commissioners, power to appoint an architect, and fill vacancies in their own board, which was declared unconstitutional; and was the only expedient that could be hit upon for the purpose, by its ingenious authors.

New Hampshire Election.

As the State of New Hampshire did not give her vote for Mr. Buchanan, it is hardly to be expected that, under present circumstances, she would give her vote to sustain his administration. If, therefore, the leaders and officials of the Administration party made, as it is charged they did, great efforts and expenditures to carry the elections in that State, they can not be said to have exhibited much sagacity. Since the election of Mr. PIERCE, New Hampshire has become-it would seem permanently-lost to the Democratic party. Occupying geographically an extreme Northern position, the views of her people would naturally be antagonistic to that ultra Southern style of sentiment which has characterized several of the later Democratic administrations. Taken as a whole, there is, perhaps, no people more truly, we might say primitively, democratic in their character than the people of New Hampshire; and the fact that their majority has be come severed from the party which professes Democracy, must be attributed to a change of location in the latter rather than in the former. For the Republican organs to exult much over the victory of their party in New Hampshire, is in bad taste. Who could reasonably have expected that it would be otherwise? The State, which in 1852 gave Mr. Pierce a majority of over seven thousand, gave, in 1856, a majority of nearly five thousand for Mr. FREMONT. It can hardly be claimed, on any hand, that the present Administration has done aught to attach the people of New Hampshire to itself, or to bring them again within the pale of its party; while the Republicans, being out of power in the Republicans, being out of power in the inst., which destroyed the Berrhamer block, on nation, could, of course, do nothing to Main street, near the American Hotel. Loss MERICAN EXPRESS CO., 52 EAST alienate them from itself. That the recent election should show a state of things pected. The Republicans have held their own in the State, under circumstances that would have made it very astonishing had they not done it.

THE speech of the Hon. GEORGE E. Puon upon the proposition of Mr. BROWN, of Mississippi, in respect to Congressional intervention in the territories, is direct and bold, and is marked with much of the peculiar style and vigor of the author. Mr. Pugn, however, while opposing a measure that would be unconstitutional, takes the erroneous ground that slevery is a creature of positive law. He claims that it may be made and unmade, established and abolished, by act of the legislature; by means of which he fails to conceive the strong point of his case-that slavery not being within the province of government, is not subject to either national or local legislative interference. As we look upon it, for the South the doctrine that slavery is within the field of either Congressional or State legislation is equally dangerous.

PETITIONS are in circulation, and signed by many citizens, praying Judge Gnotson to retract the resolution which he has expressed, not to permit his name to be used as a candidate for re-election to the office which he has for several years filled with so much credit to himself and usefulness to the public. If by executing well an important official trust, a man may be considered as having given to soeiety a right to claim still further services, the demand upon Mr. Gholson to forego his inclination to retire is unusually valid. The bench of the Superior Court, as now organized, is honorable to the city, and there are many who duct of party chicanery, its authors and | would be sorry to risk the consequences of a change.

> IT is understood that Mr. WELKER, the present Lieutenant Governor of the State, declines to become a candidate for reelection.

Dien, at Des Moines, Iowa, on Saturday, 26th alt., Mrs. Isabel Redhead, wife of Wes-ley Redhead, Esq., Postmaster of Des Moines City, in the 35th year of her age.

The publisher of the "Press," who has had the pleasure of a long acquaintance with the deceased and her bereaved husband, deeply sympathize with the mourning relatives, especially his friend-Wesley Redhead.

We copy the following notice of the deceased from the Des Moines Journal: Mrs. REDREAD was born in Richland County, Ohio; moved to Iowa City, in 1849; was there married in 1852 to Mr. Redhead, and shortly ment of Police Commissioners is not, in that ble disposition and pleasant manners, soon won for her in this city many warm friends, whose confidence and esteem, by her many virtues and genial social qualities, she retained until the close of her life. For several years she has been much afflicted and rendered incapable of mingling, to any great extent, in the social circle. Her sufferings were borne without repining, and lightened by her confidence in the truths of Christian religion. She was confined to her bed but a few days prior to her decease, and though suffering much, was cheerful and re-signed. To her, Death had no sting and the CHARACTERISTICS.—The Springfield (O.) Journal, in a review of the candidates for civil offices in that locality, is pleased to notice Mr. Wm. Brown in the following style: Mr. Brown is no connection of the celebrated John Brown that had so many little Indians, or of the notorious and wicked John Brown, of Kansas, who devours so many unfortunate Missourians.

He is THE Brown.

Mr. Brown is an intelligent man, and writes for the papers. Indeed, upon the day of his birth, he loudly demanded the morning Com-MERGIAL, and it is said that he was weaned upon an illustrated copy of the Cincinnati Sunday

William had an early fondness for figures, and has cut a figure in the world ever since. He is an excellent surveyor, and is now surveying his chances for re-election as City Marshal.

He is also an engineer-a very civil one-(which means the same as surveyor,) and will undoubtedly engineer his way cautiously.

Indiana Legislature .- The past session of the Indiana Legislature has been one of the most important ever held in the State. The revolutionary manner in which it terminated, owing to the Republican minority in the House, will make it also one of the most remarkable ever convened. In the House there were three hundred and thirty-eight bills passed that originated in that body, and also one hundred and twenty-four Senate bills.— Econocille Jour.

Proposed New June Law in England.

Lord Campbell's bill, amending the Jury law of England, has been printed for the information of members of Parliament. It is proposed to furnish them with food and fire, and unless they agree, to keep their together for six hours. If, at the expiration of that period, nine of them have agreed, it is to be taken as the verdict of the jury; if not, they are to be discharged. from further consideration of the case.

A Red River steamboat arrived the other day, at New Orleans, having on board, among others, eight widows, whose ag gregate wealth ameunted to $5,000,000. One of the said ladies is the owner of 600 slaves, and the others make a crop of 3,000,000 bales of cotton.
